Who completes this form?

Accredited body

The accredited body or its legal entity customer pre-populates this form with information in these sections: How to submit this form, Contact details and question C1.

Applicant

You are required to provide your personal details and informed consent to complete this form. You must also provide your identity documents, as detailed in Documents required. If you are less than 18 years of age, this form must be completed by your parent or legal guardian. You are completing this form to obtain a nationally coordinated criminal history check.

What is a nationally coordinated criminal history check?

A nationally coordinated criminal history check is conducted with your informed consent to determine your suitability for a position of trust, specified field of endeavour or as required by legislation. A nationally coordinated criminal history check contains your personal information, and police information that is disclosable about you, according to the purpose of your check.

Privacy notice

How will my information be used?

The ACIC and Australian police agencies

The ACIC and Australian police agencies use the information on this form and the applicant's identity documentation:

- to disclose police information relating to you, to the accredited body named in question C1.
- to update records held about you
- for law enforcement, including purposes set out in the Australian Crime Commission Act 2002 (Cth)

Accredited body

The accredited body or its legal entity customer uses the personal information collected in this form to request a nationally coordinated criminal history check and to assure itself of your identity.

The accredited body may have a legislative basis for the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information and police information to a third party. If applicable, third parties are listed in question C1. The ACIC recommends you seek more information about relevant legislation from the accredited body.

The accredited body or its legal entity customer must advise you if your personal information or police information will be transferred or supplied to a location outside Australia, known as the permitted offshore transfer arrangement. If this applies, the legal name and location of the overseas entity are listed in question C1. The ACIC recommends you seek more information from the accredited body listed in C1.

You can contact the accredited body for more information on how they handle your personal information using the contact details at the end of this section.

How is my national check result determined?

Police information is disclosed in accordance with applicable legislation and information release policies of the Australian Government and state and territory governments.

Section C – Informed consent

What is informed consent?

Your informed consent is needed before an accredited body can request a nationally coordinated criminal history check on you. Your informed consent means you:

- have read and understood the information provided in this form about how your personal information and any police information relevant to you will be handled and disclosed
- provide your permission for the accredited body to request a nationally coordinated criminal history check on your behalf
- provide your permission for the accredited body to disclose your information to any organisation listed in C1 of this form.

How do I provide my informed consent?

An important aspect of providing informed consent is that you understand what you are consenting to. It is important that you read the consent statements in question C2 and, where required, get clarification from the accredited body or its legal entity customer, to ensure complete understanding. You must then sign and date this form at C2, to give your informed consent.

Important: Please read this information about question C1.

The accredited body is required to complete question C1 before providing the form you.

Question C1 provides the details of the organisations to whom your personal and police information will be disclosed to.

In C2, you will provide your informed consent for your personal and police information to be disclosed to the ACIC, Australian police agencies, law enforcement agencies, and any organisations detailed in question C1.
